George Meany Community Service Award

On March 16, 2017, Franklin County Common Pleas Court Presiding Judge Charles A. Schneider was presented the 2017 George Meany Community Service Award.

The Community Service Award is presented as part of the annual George Meany Awards Banquet. This event, hosted by Central Ohio Labor Council AFL-CIO and the United Way Community Services Department, recognizes local business and community leaders who have given outstanding volunteer service to the community.

Judge Schneider has served on the Common Pleas Court since 2004. Judge Schneider has served as the Administrative Judge and is currently serving as the Presiding Judge.
