ANNOUNCEMENT

FRANKLIN COUNTY COMMON PLEAS COURT – GENERAL DIVISION ANNOUNCES RELEASE OF NEW WEBSITE

The Information Technology Department is pleased to announce that the new website for Franklin County Common Pleas Court – General Division is now available.

The new website address remains the same (<http://www.fccourts.org>) but has a new design, as well as updated content and functionality. The website is built using technology that provides us the ability to dynamically update existing content, add new content, and deliver frequently requested forms as they become available.

Please visit the new web site, and provide your feedback. In an effort to continue to improve the website your feedback is welcome.

You may provide feedback by clicking on “Contact Us” located at the bottom of each web page, and then clicking on the email link for “Web_Comments” or you may send us your comments by clicking on the following link (web_comments@fccourts.org).

We want to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Web Advisory Committee and all staff that have assisted in this process.
