Court Receives Award

The Franklin County Common Pleas Court – General Division received the Columbus Bar Association Liberty Bell Award on June 15, 2012, for its leadership in the facilitation of the construction of the new courthouse.

The award is given for extraordinary efforts in the community, with dedication to the principles of our democratic system of government by law.

While the Columbus Bar Association acknowledged the contributions and hard work of the entire court they specifically recognized Administrative Judge Charles A. Schneider, Judge Richard A. Frye, Judge Guy L. Reece II, and Executive Director Atiba Jones.
