Franklin County Common Pleas Adult Probation Department Receives Cliff Skeen Award

The Franklin County Common Pleas Court – General Division Adult Probation Department has been recognized by the Ohio Department of Rehabilitations and Corrections as the recipient of the 2010 Cliff Skeen Award.

The award, first presented in 1993, is given in honor of the late eight-term Ohio legislator who sponsored Ohio's Community Correction Act. It is presented annually to residential and non-residential programs in recognition of excellence in community corrections. Recipients of the award are credited with reducing the number of non-dangerous offenders being sent to prison through effective supervision services.
